Annual Report of the NACBS Executive Secretary, 2002

Cynthia Herrup (Duke) will assume the presidency of the NACBS on 1 January 2004. She will serve a two-year term, succeeding Marty Wiener (Rice), who will replace Linda Levy Peck (George Washington) as immediate past president.

Bill Lubenow (Stockton College of New Jersey) has been elected to serve a two-year term as Vice-President of the NACBS.

There was one seat open on the NACBS Council this year, as Eric Carlson (Gustavus Adolphus) completed his term. Margaret Hunt (Amherst) was elected to serve a four-year term on the Council.

There were two seats open on the NACBS Nominating Committee this year, as Rachel Weil (Cornell) and Ben McRee (Franklin and Marshall) completed their terms. Elected to serve two-year terms were George Robb (William Paterson University) and Elizabeth Ewan (University of Guelph)

Turnout: 19%

The various prize committees have selected this year's winners, and I have notified them. I shall reveal their identities at the Council meeting.

Respectfully submitted by Phil Harling (University of Kentucky), 10 October 2002
